United States of America: amendment to draft resolution A/73/L.3

Necessity of ending the economic, commercial and financial embargo imposed by the United States of America against Cuba

Insert the following new preambular paragraph immediately after the last preambular paragraph:

Expressing serious concern that in Cuba the severe lack of access to information and freedom of expression, the complete absence of judicial independence, and arbitrary arrests and detentions are undermining the collective efforts to implement Sustainable Development Goal 16[1] meant to promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all, and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels,
